About the Trek

The 'HAMPTA PASS TREK' stands out as a highly popular and thrilling crossover expedition in Himachal Pradesh. You begin this incredible 5-day journey from the vibrant adventure hub of Manali. Because the landscapes shift so dramatically, the route leaves every trekker completely spellbound.

Specifically, you move from the lush, verdant slopes of the Kullu Valley straight into the stark, barren mountain deserts of Lahaul and Spiti. This sudden environmental contrast creates an unforgettable high-altitude experience.

The journey covers a total trekking distance of 25 to 30 kilometers through pristine wilderness. You get up-close views of majestic peaks and stay at highly scenic campsites along the way. For instance, Chika offers vibrant green meadows right by the rushing Rani Nallah.

Furthermore, the trail involves thrilling river crossings and a challenging pass-crossing day. This section truly tests your stamina. Therefore, you should join our expert-led Olixora group departures to navigate these glaciers safely. Finally, your expedition reaches its major highlight with an optional visit to the magnificent, crescent-shaped Chandratal Lake.
